Second Sunday of Advent

“John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.”
“A voice cries out: In the desert prepare the way of the Lord! Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God!” When we want to begin a project or start what we have planned, we heed the good advice of those who give us proper direction. We all need a John the Baptist in our lives, one who knows what is best for us. May we humbly heed that voice and “make straight in the wasteland” – oh, how often we “waste” time and put into our hearts the things that never satisfy us! – “a highway for our God!” Joyful expectation is what Advent is all about. God comes to truly satisfy our deepest longing – to know that we are loved and that we can also love in return with a deep gratitude for all that God is doing for us!
Thank you, Jesus!

God Love You!
