Seventh Day of the Octave of Christmas

Saint Sylvester I, Pope

“And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as of the Father’s only-begotten Son, full of grace and truth.”

On New Year’s Eve, John’s first Letter reminds us: “Children, it is the last hour” and how true we are living in an age of “many antichrists.” We are encouraged because we “have the anointing that comes from the Holy One”.

Courage! A new year awaits us and we shall “Sing to the Lord; bless his name; announce salvation day after day” by how we live – and using words, if necessary.

Merry Christmas!

God Love You!
