Wednesday of the Third Week of Advent

“Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven.” This is from today’s Psalm (85:12). Oh, how we are in need of truth today! There is so much confusion over what to believe about the pandemic, about the news in general. There is a great crisis of belief – what do we really believe, in this day and age? One truth is there, wanting to be announced, and that is the love of God! “Justice shall look down from heaven” and that justice looking down from heaven is God’s mercy! In fact, God sent Mercy Incarnate in His Son Jesus! Even John the Baptist showed his human side while in prison, having doubts about Jesus as the Messiah. John “sent two of [his disciples] to the Lord to ask, ‘Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?’” Jesus told them: “Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have the good news proclaimed to them. And blessed is the one who takes no offense at me.” Let us “turn” to the Good God and “be safe” because: “Only in the Lord are just deeds and power.” The power of love!!!

God Love You!
