Wednesday of the First Week of Advent

Jesus fulfills Isaiah's prophecy "on this mountain", where he not only heals the sick, the lame, the deformed, and gives sight to the blind but he feeds them too! A total fulfillment of the prophecy of Isaiah! He wants to totally fulfill our lives as well! That is why there are seven baskets remaining – alluding to the seven pagan nations, which represents all the world outside of Judaism whom the Good Lord Jesus came to restore through the gift of the Holy Spirit. Advent is a time of joyful expectation, as we picture the joy of the people Jesus has restored, and they all gave glory to the God of Israel! Yes, there is only One True God and Father of us all! Jesus shows us the Way! Let us prepare the Way for the Feast that awaits us! Come, Lord Jesus!

God Love You!
