Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We can all relate to today's first reading and Gospel. The pandemic has made us often feel like lepers having to "dwell apart, making an abode outside the camp." If we beg humbly, "kneeling down", Jesus will be "moved with pity" and help us. Humility always brings salvation as the Holy Humility of Christ on the Cross saves us!

Sin is our leprosy – it separates us from God and one another. Jesus' obedient love for God on the Cross fulfills the two great commandments: He raised His eyes to heaven with a loving obedience, trusting His Father; and He stretched out His arms on the Cross, welcoming all humanity into His loving and saving embrace!

God Love You!
