Monday of Fourth Week of Lent

The first sign Jesus did in Galilee was change water into wine. Today's Gospel is about the second sign Jesus performs in Galilee: the healing of a royal official's son. Isaiah foretold it: "there shall always be rejoicing and happiness in what I create." Jesus works signs to bring to people to faith. He had to plant the seed of faith through signs. Yet, the greatest sign was yet to come, from Jerusalem, the great Paschal Triduum celebration we are hastening toward in these latter days of Lent. May we, too, sing the refrain from today's Psalm: "I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me." The royal official's household did just that!

God Love You!
