Saturday of the Fifth Week of Lent

Today's readings mention unity. The devil's mission is to divide, separate, tear asunder, and scatter. God desires unity and has said, "I will make of them one nation upon the land... never again shall they be divided..." Caiaphas "prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation, and not only for the nation, but also to gather into one the dispersed children of God." We have been separated from God because of the Fall of Adam and Eve and this division has brought much suffering into the world. Jesus brings us back to unity with the Father through His cross and resurrection. "...there shall be one shepherd for them all."

May we live this Holy Week in prayerful contemplation of the love that unites us for all eternity.

God Love You!
