Saturday of the Second Week of Lent

The father is waiting for the return of the son, who boldly asked for his inheritance from his father. This is very unusual; a person receives inheritance upon the death of their father, as long as the father has willed something to that person. Yet, this speaks highly of the father. He gave the son what he wanted!

The father waits for the son! “While he was a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him.” All of these actions before the son can utter a single word!

This is God! He is our Father! He gives us everything! He cares for us! He leaves us free! He will never reject us!

God Love You!
