Thursday of Third Week of Lent

I hope you began the Novena to St. Joseph yesterday. In this Year of St. Joseph, let us pray that we may live not for ourselves but for others, as St. Joseph did for Jesus and Mary.

Let us draw nearer to Jesus, through our Lenten disciplines given to us by Jesus on Ash Wednesday, in this order: almsgiving, prayer, and fasting.

Jeremiah reminds us of the danger of not listening to the voice of God: "But they obeyed not, nor did they pay heed." It can happen to any of us, at any time. Let us be on guard and heed these words: "harden not your hearts." Listening to the voice of the Lord, we shall not be "divided" from Jesus. May we heed Jesus' words: "Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters."

God Love You!
