Tuesday of Fourth Week of Lent

“There is a stream whose runlets gladden the city of God, the holy dwelling of the Most High.” Ezekiel sees “water flowing out from beneath the threshold of the temple of the Lord” which becomes a river. This image adorns the sanctuary of our church. Jesus today cures the man who for thirty-eight years desired for someone to put him into the pool of water to be cured at the proper moment. Incredible! All those years and he never gave up! Jesus is impressed with faith and perseverance. That is what Lent is teaching us also. May we be inspired by those who never give up but persevere, even amidst the difficulties of life.

God Love You!
