

Monday, April 19, 2021

Monday of the Third Week of Easter

Stephen had the face “like the face of an angel” while he was being interrogated in the Sanhedrin. It was “the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke” that bothered “some members of the so-called Synagogue of Freedmen” as he debated them. Jesus gives us words to ponder deeply within ourselves: “Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of man will give you. For on him the Father, God, has set his seal.” In those times, bakers set their seal on their loaves, letting the buyer know who makes good bread (or not). Jesus is the Bread of Life, whom the Father has set his seal. In answer to the question, “What can we do to accomplish the works of God?”, Jesus responded: “This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent.” Believe in Jesus, have faith in Him. Jesus, I trust in you!

God Love You!

Fr. Jim Starasovich

