

Tuesday, April 13, 2021
Tuesday of the Second Week of Easter
Saint Martin I, Pope, Martyr

“The community of believers was of one heart and mind.” This is the work of the Holy Spirit. The Church begins with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and needs to be renewed in the same way. All the programs and wonderful initiatives we can suggest and launch are useless unless they are a fruit of the Holy Spirit. Jesus dialogues with Nicodemus about the Spirit. Pope St. Martin I was the last Pope to be martyred, dying of starvation in 656. May we possess the gift of the Holy Spirit above all things and believe in Jesus “lifted up” on the cross so that we “may have eternal life.”

God Love You!

Fr. Jim Starasinich

