

Wednesday, April 14, 2021
Wednesday of the Second Week of Easter

John 3:16. God so loved the world! The Apostles are imprisoned. They escape at night through an angel and are returned to prison without force. “The Lord hears the cry of the poor.” They continue to boldly proclaim the Gospel and the Jewish established authorities are “filled with jealousy” at the Apostles. “For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.” We are rich if we trust in Jesus. Let us pray that everyone will come “to the light” who is Christ and may be saved.

God Love You!

Fr. Jim Starasovich

