Friday of the Eighth Week in Ordinary Time

Jesus shows the power granted Him by the Father. The fig tree he curses withers. The temple in Jerusalem he cleanses, driving out the moneychangers and the dove sellers. He does this out of love for His Father and for the people, whom the Father delights in, when the people do his will. Faith in God means that we can move mountains. With God everything is possible, especially forgiveness given by God and the grace God gives us to also be forgiving and to forgive others, so that our prayers may be heard. May we allow the Word of God to cleanse our temples, so that we may always be worthy temples of the Holy Spirit.

God Love You!
