

Wednesday, May 26, 2021
Wednesday of the Eighth Week in Ordinary Time
Saint Philip Neri, Priest

A wonderful prayer from the book of Sirach today, asking God to “come to our aid” and concluding that the world will know that “you are the eternal God.” In the Psalm we pray, “Help us, O God our savior.” Jesus announces his passion to the disciples. He reminds James and John and all the disciples: “Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” St. Philip Neri joyfully brought the presence of Christ to others, for he was filled with the Holy Spirit. He is known as the “Apostle of Rome” and “Reformer of the Eternal City”.

Saint Philip Neri, pray for us!

God Love You!

Fr. Jim Starasovich

"A joyful heart is more easily made perfect than a downcast one."

~ St. Philip Neri