

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We are in the concluding days of Religious Freedom Week (for more information about Religious Freedom Week, go to: <https://www.usccb.org/committees/religious-liberty/religious-freedom-week>). One of the great victories for religious freedom was the recent unanimous decision of the Supreme Court (yes, that is right, unanimous!), voted 9 – 0 in favor of allowing Catholic Social Services to partner with the City of Philadelphia and not be discriminated against in how they place children in foster care. It is a victory for children as well. As one commentator put it, “Let’s rally around it to free foster children for families and to free us from the tyranny of sexual-revolution ideology.”

The pilgrimage for July 15-16 has been postponed. I should have prepared this well in advance, so I am sorry to disappoint those who looked forward to making this trip to the shrines in the Green Bay Diocese. I hope to have something proposed in the near future. Please keep this in your prayers.

Enjoy the summer!

God Love You!!!
