Friday of the Eleventh Week in Ordinary Time

There is a story that I believe is attributed to St. Anthony of Padua. A man died and people were concerned about the man's soul. He had been a wealthy man. When they did an autopsy on the body, they were shocked to find he was without a heart. St. Anthony said, "Go to the bank, and you will find the man's heart there, in the safe-deposit box." Sure enough, they discovered the man's heart exactly where St. Anthony said they would find it. Jesus, in today's Gospel from the Sermon on the Mount, says, "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and decay destroy, and thieves break in and steal. But store up treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor decay destroys nor thieves break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."

God Love You!
