Thursday of the Tenth Week in Ordinary Time

Forgiveness is a grace from God. Jesus came to show the Father's love, which is forgiveness of our sins; forgiven by Jesus on the cross, who destroys our sins and sends the Holy Spirit into our hearts. As St. Paul says: "Now the Lord is the Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom." Freedom from slavery to sin because we have been forgiven and transformed by God's grace. God's grace enables us to be forgiving, even seeking out the one who has something against us, to ask forgiveness for what we have done that has caused separation. Jesus brings mercy, true love, which unites us. We see the glory of the Lord dwelling in our land through love, mercy, forgiveness and reconciliation. God desires our happiness and healing comes through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

God Love You!
