Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.” When we pray this refrain to today’s Psalm, is it true that we want nothing more than the Lord? Or do we get anxious at Mass, waiting for the Mass to end, so that we can go out to eat; go to the ballgame; go fishing; go hiking; go boating; go shopping; go somewhere but then forget the Lord? Hopefully, we follow Jesus, and receive Him in Word and Sacrament, and take Him with us wherever we go. The shepherd theme radiates through today’s liturgy. Let us be guided through life by Jesus, who defends us and leads us to eternal life.

God Love You!
